APPROVAL OF SEPTEMBER 16, 2009 MEETING MINUTES

On motion of Commissioner Bigby, seconded by Commissioner Bacio, and unanimously carried, the minutes of the meeting of September 16, 2009, were approved as submitted.

CHAIR'S REPORT

Chair Montaña reported on the following newspaper articles:

"L.A. County Inmate Allegedly Beat His Cellmate to Death," Los Angeles Times, September 10, 2009, regarding an inmate who was due to transfer to a state hospital, a facility for the mentally ill, was charged with the murder of his cellmate.

"Director of Group Home is Arrested," Los Angeles Times, September 16, 2009, regarding a San Bernardino area group home director arrested for violating his probation.

"Staff Is Disciplined After Inmate Death," Los Angeles Times, September 23, 2009, regarding sixteen Arizona corrections employees disciplined after the death of a female inmate who died of heat-related complications, after being left in a sweltering outdoor holding cell for four hours in triple-digit heat.

Vice Chair Bacio reported the following:

"Lawyer to Probe Child Deaths," Los Angeles Times, September 16, 2009, regarding Los Angeles County Supervisors' approval to hire an attorney to investigate the cases of children who die while in the County's care.

Chair Montaña reported that she, along with Commissioner Hall, attended the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) luncheon on September 10, 2009, and added the event was a success. She commended and thanked Commissioner Bigby, who is president of the NAACP, for the invitation.
